When you decide to use Home Shows as a means of selling products and finding Recruits, use these wonderful incentives for attracting your Hostesses! You can book shows as soon as you sign on as a Design Representative, but you'll need to allow at least 3 weeks time to receive your Design Kit materials and start your individual training. Hostess incentives, flyers, and "Say Yes" gifts will be included in your Kit.

"your personal style — it's in the bag!"

We've developed a fun quiz for your Ann Veronica Home Shows. Attendees answer ten simple and fun questions that, when scores are tallied, determine a bag that fits their individual style and personality! You'll find it a great conversation and "get-to-know-each-other" piece, and a great way for you to introduce different Ann Veronica bags from our line. As an added incentive, Attendees who book a Home Show are eligible to receive 50% off the bag that fits their personal style, or one of equal value they pick from our catalogue! They will receive their bag when they successfully Hostess a show with gross sales of $101 or more.

You can also use this incentive for Recruits! When you Sponsor an Attendee and they become a Design Representative, their bag, or one of similar value is FREE! They will receive their bag as part of their Design Kit.
